Consent to the processing of personal data

I consent, under the "REGULATION (EU) 2016-679 - GDPR", to the processing of my personal data only for the completion, by Dermatologia Pediatrica Association (DPA), of purposes pertaining to the exercise of associative activities and of those connected to it, provided for by the Bylaws. My personal data (name, address, telephone, email, payment details, access information to the ejpd.com website) will be processed, each in its own area, for membership purposes; management of data bases (directories aimed at sending communications to DPAP members); management of the association's website (which uses cookies and similar technologies, with which personal data are processed). These are data that are released by me at the time of registration and whose recipients are operators authorized by DPA who need to treat them for the exclusive pursuit of statutory purposes. I am aware that the ADP has no intention of transferring the personal data of its members to a third country or to an international organization, except when required by law, and that in any case the transfer will never cover all personal data or entire categories of personal data contained in the DPA register. I am aware, finally, that the updated list of people responsible for processing my personal data may be requested to the data controller at the e-mail address:
