

Idiopathic chilblains / COVID toes. 196

Phakomatosis pigmentovascularis type Va. 198

Acne prevalence and characterization in adolescents. 203

Hospital admissions to a pediatric dermatology unit. A retrospective study. 213

Mastocytosis in children. Clinical features are more useful than laboratory examinations. 219

Subcutaneous panniculitis-like T cell lymphoma in children. 223

Bilateral median canaliform dystrophy of great toenails in a child. 228

Verrucous epidermal

nevus: diagnostic difficulties. 230

Fibrolipomatous hamartoma of the thoracic skin. 233

Aplasia cutis congenita in a newborn exposed to methimazole. 236

Goldenhar syndrome. A new case. 239

Atrophic vascular patch: early involuting fetal hemangioma? 242

Congenital melanocytic nevus becoming evident at puberty. 245

Lichen planus pigmentosus in a 7-year-old girl. 248

Solitary congenital neurofibroma with overlying melanocytic hyperplasia. 251

Diving ranula. 254