

Port-wine stain/Cutis marmorata telangiectatica congenita. 156

Association of thick-plaque psoriasis and Down's syndrome. 159

Striped transitory hyperpigmentation of the torso in a newborn. 163

The halo of regressing nevus is not always regular in children. 167

iPad, iPhone and pediatric dermatology. 172

Vitiligo surrounding lichenified AD. 177

Cutaneous tuberculosis and coinfection with HIV. 179

Prevalence and severity of acne in young people. 185

Pediatric skin disorders in a Portuguese hospital. 191

Hypopigmented acquired melanocytic nevi. 201

Multiple epidermal cysts on regressing hemangioma. 202

Psoriasis and suppurating epidermal cysts. 203

Acquired eruptive nevus and EBDR. 204

Dirty nevus due to fear of malignant degeneration. 205

Hemangioma of the oral cavity. 206

Eruptive angioma with satellitosis. 207

Dermoscopy in the diagnosis of lichen ruber planus. 208

Nail malalignment. 210

Tic of the hands. 211

Dermatofibroma. 212

Primary cutaneous myeloblastic leukemia. 213

Acquired self-healing cutaneous Langerhans cell histiocytosis. 214

Treatment of pneumonia. 216